Dnaagdawenmag Binnoojiiyag Child & Family Services is a multi-service Indigenous wellbeing agency. We provide a stable foundation for children, youth, and families, through wrap-around services that are culturally based, and family focused.

PURPOSE OF THE POSITION

Reporting to the Supervisor, the Alternative Care Worker, Kinship Service is responsible for completing and maintaining the documentation for assessments, approvals, and ongoing monitoring of Kinship Service placements in accordance with Ontario Kinship Service Standards. The role assesses the suitability, safety, and caregiving capacity of family members, extended relatives, or significant connections who may care for children who cannot remain with their parents or primary caregivers. The position works in close collaboration with Family Service to ensure coordinated service delivery, maintain placement stability, and support the goal of reunification where appropriate.

RESPONSIBILITIES

Kinship Service Functions:

- Complete initial and comprehensive Kinship Service assessments, including home visits, interviews, safety assessments, reference checks, and required documentation.
- Assess the caregiver's capacity to provide safe, temporary care and assess risks in relation to the child protection concerns identified in the family file.
- Ensure caregivers understand their responsibilities regarding safety planning, incident reporting, and managing risks related to parental behaviour or court conditions.
- Provide caregivers with clear information regarding Voluntary Service Agreements, court-ordered Kin Service placements, and expectations associated with each.
- Provide ongoing service to approved Kinship Service homes, including Kinship

- service plans, updated safety assessments, and regular home visits.
- Support caregivers in facilitating Sàgìhidig Family Time, including discussing supervision needs and assist with coordinating volunteer drivers when required.
 - Coordinate and support applications for the Canada Child Benefit (CCB), Temporary Care Assistance, and other financial support, while ensuring documentation is accurate and complete.
 - Assist caregivers in accessing community resources and agency supports to promote placement stability.
 - Work collaboratively with Family Service to ensure consistent outcome planning and communication.
 - Participate in case planning circles, family meetings, and discussions with the First Nation communities, where applicable.
 - Provide ongoing support, problem-solving, and guidance to caregivers, including navigating court delays or challenging family dynamics.
 - Contribute to department development and cross-functional work by following agency procedures and participating in team initiatives.

CPIN Documentation

- Maintain thorough, accurate, and timely documentation in CPIN. This includes all contact logs, assessments, home visits, learning plans, safety plans, and ongoing service plans for both the child(ren) and the family.
- Ensure documentation complies with the Ministry of Children, Community and Social Services (MCCSS) requirements, the Child, Youth and Family Services Act (CYFSA), Ontario Kinship Service Standards, and agency policies and procedures, and is completed within required timelines.

Administrative Duties:

- Maintain organized and complete Kinship Service files, including assessments, plans, and supporting documents.
- Request, track, and follow up on police record checks, CPIN record checks, and reference checks as part of the assessment process.
- Prepare court-related documentation for case conferences, legal planning, and court proceedings.
- Liaise with the Finance Department to ensure financial supports are administered correctly.

Other Duties:

- Performs other duties as assigned, including tasks that support additional areas of Alternative Care.

POSITION REQUIREMENTS

Education and Experience Requirements:

- Bachelor of Social Work (BSW) or equivalent, OR a Master's or Bachelor's degree in a Human Services–related field with at least three (3) years of relevant experience working with children and families.
- Other educational achievements and relevant experiences which, in the opinion of the Executive Director, Director of Family Well-Being and Director of People & Operational Performance, is an equivalency for the purposes of this position, may be considered.
- Experience working within Child Welfare and/or Indigenous Child-Wellbeing setting would be considered an asset.

Availability Requirements:
