FULL SALARY RANGE:	$120,602.63 - $142,200.52 *
LOCATION:	EAST REGION
POSTING DATE:	APRIL 14, 2026
CLOSING DATE:	MAY 25, 2026

Dnaagdawenmag Binnoojiiyag Child & Family Services is a multi-service Indigenous wellbeing agency. We provide a stable foundation for children, youth, and families, through wraparound services that are culturally based, and family focused.

PURPOSE OF THE POSITION

In reporting to the Legal Services Manager, the In-House Legal Counsel represents the Agency in all matters prescribed with the CYFSA, The Federal Legislation, the Children's Law Reform Act, the Family Law Rules, and any other relevant legislation.

The In-House Legal Counsel understands the importance of seeking alternative approaches outside of the legal system that will result in preserving relationships, protecting cultural identity and promoting healing. The incumbent provides advice and guidance that respects the rights and well-being of Indigenous children, youth and families and supports solutions that reduce reliance on formal court processes and contributes to positive and sustainable outcomes.

RESPONSIBILITIES

Legal Consultation:

- Provide legal consultation and training to Agency staff in execution of its mandate under the CYFSA and the Federal Legislation.
- Support the provision of services and case management practices that incorporate the enhancement and development of a positive cultural identity of the children, youth, families and communities served.
- Participate in case conferencing and decision making where appropriate on case management issues.
- Provide legal advice and services to Agency staff on the interpretation and application of the CYFSA and other legislation pertaining to child welfare or family law.
- Provide legal consultation with Agency staff regarding case planning, abuse registration and/or adoption related issues.

- Advocate and support the use of alternative approaches to the legal system.
- Assist Agency staff requiring preparation to appear on court matters.

Court Related Activities:

- Provide advice and representation for Agency staff at all levels of courts and tribunals including the Child and Family Services Review Board.
- Prepare cases for presentation in court by coordinating the gathering of all information and evidence.
- Draft and/or review pleadings, affidavits, briefs and all court related documents.
- Represent the Agency in all levels of the courts and tribunals in relation to the CYFSA, Children's Law Reform Act, Family Law Act and other statutes in both contested and uncontested matters including adjournments, contested motions, motions for summary judgment, hearings, conferences, motions for disclosure, trials and appeals.
- Prepare all documents, processes, case activities, dispositions and court forms.
- Undertake legal research as needed and review current and proposed legislation as required.
- Prepare Agency staff as witnesses.
- Negotiate settlements where possible.
- Represent the Agency in appeals brought by others and by the Society for orders under the CYFSA, at all levels of court, as required.
- Represent the Agency with respect to any litigation involving disclosure of Agency records and files.
- Support and problem solve high-profile and crisis situations.
- Participate in the presentation of training programs on legal matters and procedure

Leadership and Relationship Building:

- Supervision of a Legal Assistant, providing strong leadership and guidance to fostering a values driven, supportive and collaborative team environment and culture of engagement and well-being.
- Promote learning and development, utilizing Agency tools and resources, including leadership competencies, wholistic reviews, coaching for improvement, internal and external training, etc.
- Promote employee recognition through informal and formal feedback.
- Communicate clear and measurable performance expectations and accountabilities to the Legal Assistant.
- Monitor and ensure appropriate distribution of tasks and workload.
- Foster a collaborative and cooperative relationship between Agency staff and community members potentially involved within the court system.
- Establish positive relationships with community, internal and external to the Agency, including Agency staff, medical professionals, police, Chief and Councils as well as collateral and community organizations involved in child welfare service delivery.

Administration and Reporting:

- Complete administrative and reporting duties as required.
- Develop goals, objectives and measurable indicators of success.
- Document all legal issues, process and case activities in accordance with established policies and procedures.
- Prepare reports, briefing notes and correspondence as required.
- Prepare and submit reports, attendance records and travel expense claims.
- Ensure confidentiality and safekeeping of all Agency documents and records.
- Develop and maintain accurate, up-to-date and concise work files.

Other Duties:

- Other duties as assigned by the Legal Services Manager or designate.

- A solid understanding of and sensitivity to the experiences of First Nations and Indigenous peoples in Canada, and the impact of the legacy of Residential Schools and the Sixties Scoop upon them is essential.

Ability Requirements:

- Capacity to integrate Indigenous knowledge and practices into legal services while practicing cultural humility, recognizing and addressing one's own biases, and continually learning from Indigenous communities
- Skilled in navigating and challenging systemic barriers to ensure equitable treatment and services.
- Ability to make sound decisions in high-pressure situations, balancing legal requirements with cultural considerations and an anti-oppressive lens.
- Strong problem-solving skills and conflict resolution, with the capacity to develop innovative solutions that respect Indigenous values and community needs.
- Excellent communication skills:
 - Written communication skills to prepare correspondence, draft court documentation, and write legal opinions, draft contracts, etc.
 - Verbal communication skills to relay information to workers, service recipients, other Lawyers, and in particular, when presenting arguments to the Judge in a court setting.
- Negotiation and decision-making skills to negotiate settlements in court cases, to determine course of action during court hearings and to mediate between social work and legal professions.
- Ability to research points of law, both in court proceedings and in providing day-to-day legal advice to the Agency.
- Organizational skills to effectively prepare and implement the presentation of a case in court.
- Facilitating training and development sessions and in developing effective learning resources and tools.
- Interpersonal skills to interact with different disciplines in a setting where there are conflicting interests (e.g., unwilling witnesses, irate parents, etc.).
- Ability to manage services, including assignment of court cases and delegation of work to support staff, ensuring consistency in the provisions of legal services.
- Strong technical aptitude, with proficiency in Microsoft Office applications (Word, Excel, Outlook, PowerPoint), databases, and reporting tools.
- Ability to monitor performance of support staff and develop work plans.

Mandatory Requirements:

- Must be willing to work flexible hours including weekends, evenings and holidays as required.

- Provide an acceptable Canadian Police Information Centre Check (CPIC) and Vulnerable Sector Screening (VSS).
